

Agenda 47: Protecting Students from the Radical Left Marxist Maniacs Infecting Educational Institutions (5/2/23)

"The time has come to reclaim our once great educational institutions from the radical Left, and we will do that."

- President Trump has pledged to fire the radical left accreditors that have allowed our colleges to become dominated by Marxists and far-left leadership.
- He will impose solid standards on American colleges and universities, including defending the American tradition and Western civilization.
- Donald Trump will use whatever resources necessary for protecting free speech.
- He will also eliminate wasteful administrative positions that drive up costs, removing all DEI bureaucrats.
- He will make sure colleges are offering options for accelerated and low-cost degrees and are providing meaningful job placement and career services.
- President Trump will make sure institutions are implementing college entrance and exit exams to prove that students are getting their money's worth.
- President Trump will direct the Department of Justice to pursue federal civil rights cases against schools that continue to engage in racial discrimination and will advance a measure to have schools that continue these illegal and unjust policies fined up to the entire amount of their endowment.

American College campuses are ground zero for cultural indoctrination and many influences from the left and Marxist ideologies. President Trump will end this.
